

The Japanese Ambassador to Malawi Kae Yanagisawa paid her maiden visit to the Malawi International Trade Fair which ended on 3rd June 2018. Addressing members of the press after her visit she said she was impressed with the exhibitions.

She said: "It is not only the private sector exhibiting but also public institutions such as government departments as well as international exhibitors," Adding that the embassy will mobilize companies from Japan to participate in future trade fairs in Malawi.

She further said her country will continue supporting Malawi especially in the Agriculture sector.

She said that her country have programmes in place aiming at connecting Japanese businesses with Malawian businesses to promote trade between business people of the two countries.

Japanese Ambassador promises to mobilize Japanese businesses

Thursday, 07 June 2018 05:07

---