

The Investment and Export Promotion Agency of Mozambique (APIEX) will hold the 54th Edition of the Mozambique International Trade Fair(FACIM) to be held in Maputo from the 27th

August to 2nd

nd

September 2018., under the theme “

Mozambique and the World: Broadening the market, promoting investment and fostering partnerships

APIEX is therefore inviting Malawian companies to participate in the fair which will bring together various players from all sectors of the economy in Mozambique and abroad.

According to an invitation sent by the Malawian High Commission in Mozambique, the 2017 fair attracted 2000 exhibitors from Mozambique and foreign countries.

The invitation reads:” The mission believes that this will be a great opportunity for Malawian businesses to showcase their products and services to Mozambique and the world at large, and therefore wishes to appeal to the stakeholders in Malawi to lobby Malawi’s participation to this very important event,”

The invitation letter further said the mission together with the Consulate in Tete will facilitate an Investment Forum on the sidelines of the FACIM.

The forum is expected to be attended by the Minister of Industry, Trade and Tourism, Malawi Investment and Trade Centre, Malawi Confederation of Chambers of Commerce and Industry, Export Development Fund and other stakeholders that will be key in the lobbying efforts to promote opportunities in Malawi.
